Dear Parent/Carer,

RE: A Level History Resources

I hope this email finds you well. It has been great to see our Year 12 students start their History course with such enthusiasm and our Year 13's return with a focused and hardworking attitude as we work on coursework. I am sure they are all looking forward to half term – not long now!

As you are aware, students study 2 key units across the 2-year History course with our exam board AQA – ‘The Tudors 1485-1603’ and ‘Revolution and Dictatorship: Russia 1917-1953’. We are able to offer revision guides for both sides of the AQA course at a price of £6.90 each. The guides cover all key content, exam skills and revision tips. Feedback from previous A Level students has been very positive, with students having found the guides a valuable revision resource.

We did sell these guides last year, so it may well be that many in our Year 13 cohort have already purchased one, however we are selling copies this year so if any of our Y13 historians missed their chance they can buy one now.

If you would like to purchase one or both of these guides please do so via ParentPay by Monday 30th October.

Please don't hesitate to contact me at school should you have any questions.

Yours sincerely
