10 November 2021

Dear Parent/Carer,

The awarding bodies have now published their external examination timetables. The main exam period runs from Monday 16 May to Tuesday 28 June 2022.

In addition, AS-level Thinking Skills exams will be held on Thursday 28 April and Thursday 12 May 2022. Some other vocational examinations e.g. BTEC, Cambridge Technicals etc. may take place earlier in May outside the main exam period.

PLEASE NOTE: Wednesday 29 June 2022 has been designated a 'contingency day' for examinations. The contingency day would be used in the event of national or local disruption to examinations in the United Kingdom and is part of the awarding bodies' standard contingency planning for examinations.

Since more than one timetable date could be affected, all students must remain available up to and including the contingency day.

Kind regards,

Farlingaye Exams Office
