12th September 2022

Ks/ASW0922

Dear Parents/Carers

The school has recently received confirmation from the Department for Education that all schools should remain fully open during the period of national mourning triggered by the sad passing of Queen Elizabeth II.

Accordingly, Farlingaye High School will operate as normal for the whole of this week. However, the school will close on Monday 19th September as this has been declared a bank holiday as a result of the State Funeral taking place on this day.

The school will be holding assemblies all week to allow students to reflect on the contribution of Queen Elizabeth II to the UK and to its history.

If you have any questions about this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Dr A Sievewright
Headteacher
