

12th July 2024

Dear Pyramid Primaries,

As part of our ongoing commitment to Literacy at Farlingaye, we have bought every student joining us in September a copy of a novel called Swan Song. They received their novels on 1st July at Farlingaye's 'New Intake Day' and our hope is that they read Swan Song over the holidays. Every student will be involved in transition activities in September, using Swan Song as a stimulus.

We appreciate that some students might find the reading of a whole novel overwhelming, so we are delighted to attach a link (below) of the audio recording of Swan Song. A group of Farlingaye staff have read each chapter of the novel so students can follow along, or listen on car journeys this summer.

We would really appreciate you sending this audio link out to the parents of children you know will be coming to us in September, please.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions
